Resident's granddaughter wed

Mrs. Christopher Helton

Miss Deborah Susan Fuhrman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fuhrman, Newark, Delaware, and granddaughter of Mrs. Richard Williamson, 34 Canton Street, was wed to Mr. Christopher Helton this September in Los Angeles.

A ceremony and reception dinner were held in a United Nations Plaza suite, New York City, on October 15. Matron of honor was Mrs. Jeffrey Matthews of Greenville, Delaware. Best man was Mr. Adam Culley from the Wall Street firm of Salomon and Brothers, Inc.

The bride wore a floor-length designer gown of white tulle and lace with a dropped shoulder cut and tulle sleeves. She carried a salmon pink rose and baby's breath. Mrs. Helton is a graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School, the University of Delaware, and the marketing-advertising program at New York University. She has been employed by Marsteller Inc., a subsidiary of Young and Rubicam, as an advertising account executive in New York, and as a copywriter at Parke-Davis.

Accountants sponsor gala

The Northeast Chapter, Public Accountants Society of Pennsylvania, recently held their annual holiday gala at the Green Ridge Club. The co-chairpersons for the gala were Susan Mancuso and Robert Emmi. The accountants, their spouses and guests in attendance were:

Samuel and Thelma Bosch, Jerry and Jacquelyn Czigala, Anthony and Harriet Enni, Robert and Mari Enni, Donald and Susan Mancuso, Michael and Rhoda

Miss Ann Bonacci marries in Maryland

Miss Ann Bonacci, daughter of former Carbondale residents Nicholas and Nicola Cerra, became the bride of Henry A. Mast son of Mr. Henry A. Mast, 161 Air, MD, and Mrs. Mary King Both, 161 Air, MD, and the late Louis A. Bonacci, and former Carbondale residents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cerra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown and veil of 27 years. The gown is pure Italian ivory silk and lace. The full skirt was edged with embroidered Italian lace extending around the cathedral train. The bodice and long sleeves are accented with lace. The scalloped neckline featured pearls and red velvet sequins. She wore a three-quarter length veil falling from a crown that matched her gown. The veil was scalloped and accented with tiny pearls. She carried a large bouquet of red and ivory roses.

Attending as maids of honor were Maria and Catherine Bonacci, twin sisters of the bride. Bridesmaids were Bonnie and Dora Mast, Cindy Mrozek, Jane Arjuszewski, Cindy Crane and Kathy Purkins. They all wore tulle, in red shading. Featuring a two tier ruffle which fell to an off the shoulder look. A fitted waist was set above a gathered skirt finished with two separate ruffles trimming the hemline to make an open effect at the back. The attendants wore riding hats accented with blouses and veiling.

Best men were Jeffrey P. Hackney and Kevin Zalecki. Ushers were Billy Reed, Mark Atlas, Joey Cawley, Mark Jones, Chuck Fray and Ronnie Thompson. Ringbearer was Tony Sturgill.

Following the candlelight ceremony a formal dinner reception was held at Martin's West.

The bride is a graduate of Archbishop Keough High School and Robert's Institute of Hair Design, is employed at the Crowning Glory Hair Salon.

The groom is a graduate of Brooklyn Park High School, Baltimore, is employed at Baltimore Gas and Electric Co.

Following a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., the couple is residing in Baltimore.
